Dear Class of 2006:

As graduates taking part in Northeastern's 104th commencement exercises, you will always hold a special place in your university's remarkable history. Thanks in large measure to all of your accomplishments, Northeastern has continued to rise to heightened levels of competitiveness, progress that should serve you well in the years to come. With pride and please, on behalf of the faculty and trustees, I congratulate you on reaching this milestone in your life.

Since this is my final year as Northeastern president, this commencement will be mine as well, and so we share a common interest in our hopes for new successes on the journeys that lie ahead. As you leave Northeastern, I hope you see your time here as the beginning of your learning, not the end. There will always be more to know, deeper levels of understanding and higher levels of performance to attain. Keep growing and searching for knowledge, because to stop learning is, in a real sense, to stop living.

I hope you will seek wisdom and compassion even you pursue knowledge and skill. As you discover, make use of your discoveries. As you learn, teach. As you succeed, share. What you have acquired during your years here can make your community-and all the world-a better place.

I hope, too, that you will keep a place in your heart for Northeastern. You have earned a permanent place among us. We want to be a continuing part of your life and your growth. You are joining generations of graduates linked to one another throughout the past century. With you now in the vanguard, this University, this family of Northeastern, will flourish anew in the years to come.

Sincerely,

AM facelond Richard M. Freeland

March 4th-12th Spring Break '06

The Center of Community Service sponsored an Alternative Spring Break trip for students to build houses with Habitat for Humanity in California, Florida, or Honduras.

The beach is a popular getaway for Spring Break destinations. especially since the week before students left Boston's temperature was 2 degrees with the wind chill!

For those students not on co-op, this week was one where many journeys took place. (Even if that meant going back home to your parents' house and sleeping the whole time because you had no money to go away with your friends)

Some students chose AskMen.com's T a colder destination. however, and traveled to Zermatt, Switzerland for a week of skiing and an experience of European Culture at Matterhorn Mountain.

The Best of Northeastern

- News posts an online survey giving students the opportunity to select the best of the best around Northeastern.
- * Categories range from the best pizza place to the best place to live on campus to the best shopping.
- The 2005-2006 survey returned a couple new winners as well as some old time favorites
- The following results were published by the Northeastern News on April 19, 2006.

CHICKEN LOU'S The campus favorite since 2000 received 47% of votes

Best On-Campus

Eatery

Move over Wendy's. Stand back, Mond Subs. Chicken Lou's has pummele the competition once again. Chicken Lou's is housed in a trailer-like building on Forsyth Street next to Cabot Gym and across the street from Dockse Hall. The line for service between classes is often long and cramped, but th food keeps everyone coming back and the business alive. Whether student choose to eat at the picnic tables besides the eatery or grab a sandwich wh hustling to class to gorge themselves in fatty goodness. Chicken Lou's has a lost its strong hold on Northeastern's famished stomachs. The fast food-like restaurant's self-awareness is notable. Lou's never pretends to be something it isn't. This place knows its food is fat-filled, dripping with grease, yet consumed by the masses. Such self-awareness helps keep the down to ea vibe going strong. Lou's offers a wide variet of sandwiches and beverages. including the Cholesterol, which is rightfully named, given it consists of back egg, and cheese on the bread of your choice. The breakfast sampler sandwhich offers your standard bacon, ham, sausage, three eggs and cheese. I $5.75 this heart attack on a hamburger roll pleases any hungry husky. So g ahead, grab a juice, soda, light or dark roast coffee along with a Cholestero on a bagel and make it to that 8 a.m. lab fly by on a full stomach.

HILLMAN HALL One of the nivesity's newer buildings located on the orner of Centennial Commons, Shillman received 47% of votes.

Building

With only four floors and its aesthetically appealing interior and exterior, Shillman Hall was voted Best Classroom Building. The Dunkin Donuts and air conditioning inside this architectural masterpiece make the idea of summer classes a bit more bearable. As one of the newer buildings on-campus, the computer, audio and visiual technology is far superior to Kariotis' dungeonlevel classrooms or Robinson's stifling fourth-floor torture chambers. Not only that, but the seminar style, stadium-seating classroom design makes for a clear view of the front of the room no matter where students sit. Rooms ar spacious, well-ventilated and very conducive to an interesting learning experience. Althought the line at Dunkin' Donuts can get pretty long, it's worth the wait, because nothing beats a savory sausage, egg 'n' cheese sandwich on a croissant while watching "But I'm a Cheerleader" in Gender and Sexuality. Hayden and Richards Halls may both share a Dunkin' Donuts, but the slower than molasses elevator, dilapidated classrooms and uncomfortably close desk setup are just a few of the downfalls that made Shillman outshine them.

EDDIE GRIFFIN The sold out performance in September earned his comic 43% of votes

Best Visit Celebrity

It looks like students prefer comedy over pornography. Eddie Griffin beat out Ron Jeremyy in a tight race to be named this year's best celebrity visit to campus. Selling out Blackman Auditorium in September, the actor/comedian/dancer's hour-long act incorporated everything from being a sperm to his distaste for today's politics. The unconventional Griffin smoked on stage, swore up a storm and turned Bill Cosby into a drug dealer and Martin Luther King Jr. into a pimp. Known for his appearances in the "Deuce Bigalow" movies and "Undercover Brother," Griffin got his start on Def Comedy am in the early 1990's. He has worked with everyone from Chris Rock to Bernie Mac to Dr. Dre. In 2006 he played a father character in "Date Moive," a similar role to Robert DeNiro's in "Meet the Fockers." Griffin's successes, vulgarity, and more appealing looks may have given him the slight edge over the King of Porn. Or perhaps it was the loud-mouth comic's admiration of the ladies at the university that jolted him to the No. 1 spot. "They got it goin' on," he said in an interview before the September performance. "There must be a lot of happy dicks here."

WEST VILLAGE G & H The two newest residence halls received 49% of votes

Best

Upperclasman

Housing

★ They're tall, luxurious, and according to students, they're one of the best again. West Village G and H are the top choice for upperclassman housing. With their spacious rooms and colored walls it's not much of a surprise. Opened in 2004, these buildings, which also feature comfortable classrooms, became an instant hit with students and the Boston community. West Village H, the 21+ residence halls, won the Harleston Parker Award given by Boston Society of Architects for most beautiful piece of architecture in the greater Boston area. And if the award-winning looks are not enought to please, the single bedrooms and breathtaking views are sure to satisfy even the pickiest student. There's also an added bonus for those living in the top rooms of West Village H - they can watch Red Sox games from their living rooms without spending a dime on tickets. Both of these residence halls/classroom hybrids are situated on the outskirts of the West Village cluster in west campus. Located close to academic buildings and the Green Line, G and H tend to be more popular than the Davenport Commons - the Columbus Avenue equivalents.

KENNEDY HALL The freshman honors residence hall received 23% of votes.

Best

Freshman

Housing

The Hemenway Street gem, Kennedy Hall, was voted by readers as the befreshman residence hall. The five-story, strictly-honors housing is home to more than 200 high-achieving freshmen and provides as much style and luxury as a freshmen college residence hall coud. In addition to a spacious common room shared by a suite, the Kennedy kids also get their own bathrooms. The setup is semi-apartment style, where singles and doubles are attached to the bathroom and common room. With these accommodations Northeastern's most high achieving freshmen can study in silence when the need to, and kick back with their roommates when they want to. Students living in Kennedy also have the option of going to the downstairs game roo There are the classic common room amenities such as pool tables, ping or and foosball. Not only do Kennedy students have it great at home they also have it great on the streets. Kennedy is down the block from the dining hal and Whole Foods is right up the road, making it easy for the honors studen to stock up on brain food. As Kennedy is an exclusively honors residence I the students have each other to not only live with, but to work and study wi The convenience of having thee in your classes also in your home is very t eficial to these students. Kennedy serves a nourishing environment for two keys to success: colloborative community and companionship. Hard work paid off for these honor students, whether it be the ability to take a midnight run to Cappy's between studying to keep up that 4.0, or having the privacy to study in peace. Kennedy is the underclassman residence hall that bring freshman living to the next level. But with the opening of the new freshmar honors residence hall, West Village F, this fall, will Kennedy keep its title?

RINGFEST WEEK The annual week-long series of events received 29% of

On campus

It looks like students wanted their NEU. Springfest week was voted Best Time on Campus for the second consecutive year. This year's MTV-themed week titled "I Want my NEU", largely sponsored by the Council for University Programs (CUP), included fashion events, a karaoke night, and the successful concert headlining Dashboard Confessional. Students praised this year's Springfest week for its variety of happenings. Events like NEUnplugged featuring the bands Steel Train and Augustana, and Yo! NEU Raps with the group The Sugarhill Gang gave this Springfest an old school vibe. The varied lineup for the grand finale concert, which consisted of The Violent Femes, Mix Master Mike, Jurassic 5 and Dashboard Confessional, also went over well with the student body. In addition, Singled Out and Say What?! Karaoke, hosted by "celebrities" like Randy from the "Real World San Diego" and Landon from the "Real World Philadelphia" were popular events. Also Northeastern dropout Damien Fahey visited campus to give a seech on his life as an MTV hots. The cost for this week of fun-filled events? A mere $158,000.

Pizza

Place

★ Boston House of Pizza, located on Huntington Avenue across from the YMCA - just a short walk from Northeastern's Green Line T stop - was voted the prime sport for pizza on campus. For those seeking a gyro, sandwich or just a cheesy slice, BHOP has long been a destination for late night partiers, bar-hoppers and studiers in dire need of a snack. Stationed between Huntington Wine and Spirits and raval Capps II, BHOP has been serving the general Northeastern community since 1970. Open until 12:30 a.m., the restaurant is one of few pizza shops in the area that accepts the Husky Card in addition to cash and credit cares. A large variety of salads, pasta, calzones, and other late night snacks is served at a wide range of prices. The array of subs, including everything from a fish sub to eggplant to meatball, can all be purchased for under $6 each. BHOP's pizzas, including chicken, Athenian and Sicilian, range from $6 to $10 for a small and $9 to $15 for a large. Additinally, BHOP currently offers a special: Buy two large pizzas and receive a free 2-liter soda.

SGA The Student Government Association received 33% of the votes

Best On-campus

Student Group

* The Student Government Association (SGA) caused many changes on campus over the past year and was voted most active student group. SGA worked with the provost's office to establish an undergraduate research office, revitalized the teacher and course evaluation process and brought a new health insurance plan to campus. They sponsored the Second Annual Undergraduate Research Opportunities Extravaganza and had student groups join together through two Syngergy events. They also sought reform in the health center, even before the resignation of the University Sexual Assault Coordinator Laura Weiss and helped create a safe space for the Northeastern University Bisexual, Lesbian, and Gay Association. Perhaps most noteworthy, SGA established direct elections, which will allow students to vote for 2007-08's University student president. Ashley Adams, president of SGA, said that it was "incredible" to accomplish such long-term goals in one year. "We've done things that have been on the roster and on the docket for about 20 years," Adams said. "We've finally gotten those achieved." SGA faced its share of difficulties, such as the forced resignation of its president and executive vice president over the summer and the removal of scholarships for the association's executive board. However, Adams said the past year exceeded her expections, and she hopes SGA continues to realize its abilities. "I think that this year we've been very very stable and we've come a long way," she said. "And I really just hope that we take this momentum and we keep going and we don't stop.

Sport

The world's oldest hockey arena is filled with excitement, energy, and anticipation when the Northeastern hockey teams take to the ice, hoping to bring in a win. Despite having a less than successful season, hockey was voted best Northeastern sport proving Husky fans in fact do support the players. First year men's coach Greg Cronin, led his players to 3-24-7 overall and a record 3-17-7 in the conference. The team lost to Boston College in the semi-final of the Beanpot, 5-2. They then went on to the consolation game against Harvard and lost 5-0. In her second season as head coach of the women's team, Laura Shuler led her team to a season record of 8-24-1 overall and 6-14-1 in the conference. In the Beanpot, the team lost to Boston College in the semi-final round 4-3 and lost again in the consolation game to Boston University 3-1. They have few wins, but fans still enjoy watching their home teams take to the ice. Jackie Findra, a freshman communications major said she enjoys the atmosphere and participating in the numerous cheers. "The games are exciting and exhilarating," she said. "I always participated in the cheers - You have to." The section located above the goal is known as the Doghouse. Fans gather together in this section wearing all black and cheering for their Huskies. "The Doghouse is loud and can sometimes be offensive, but it's a lot of fun," said Amy Malmberg, a freshman psychology major. CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The Student Government Association serves as the united voice of the student body. Senate committees handle various aspects of university life. SGA voices students' opinions on: university budgeting, financial aid, program requests, student activity fee allocation, athletics, judicial affairs, afterHOURS, public safety, dining services, housing, health services and the Curry Student Center.

Student Governement Association

Cajun food, Richard Freeland's smiling face, green and purple beads, and throngs of students characterized the fourth annual Mardi Gras Breakfast at Levine Marketplace. A live band serenaded the students as they entered the event, which would not be complete without the usual, ominous line of partygoers. Many students break up the monotony of winter and brave the cold for this exciting experience.

The Women and Leadership Conference, sponsored by LEGO and Northeastern Xcel, addressed issues directly focused for women leaders. Northeastern's Females' Center of Excellence and Leadership is a femalebased student organization dedicated to the professional, academic and personal development of its members. NU Xcel strives to provide its members with leadership, community service and career advancement opportunities.

The Women and Leadership Conference 2006.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS & CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The Campus Recreation department organizes various intramural sports teams including: 3 on 3 Basketball, 5 on 5 Basketball, Dodgeball, Flag Football, Racquetball, Tennis, 4 on 4 Volleyball, Short Ice Broomball, Mini Lacrosse, Ice Hockey, Floor Hockey, Roller Hockey, Indoor Soccer, Kickball, Softball, Quickball, 6 on 6 Volleyball, Wallyball, Wiffleball, & Inner Tube Waterpolo omball is one of the more unique intermural sports at Northeastern. Five players from each team, armed with helmets and brooms and he ice. Dressed in sneakers, the teams have three twelve minute periods to use the brooms to knock the round ball into the goal.

TOPITORIE NIZATIONS

Students returned from winter break to the fabulous Northeastern. Complete with a Vegas theme, the second annual Winter Carnival enticed students back to the Curry Student Center with games, photos with Elvis, free food and prizes.

"What happens in Curry stays in Curry."

The Northeastern Huskiers and Outdoor Club is all about spending time in the great outdoors no matter where the outdoors is. You can find them hiking at the cabin in New Hampshire, skiing or riding at Sunday River or even camping out on the quad.

I'm sure you have heard as much "Congratulations!" "Way to Go!" and "Good Luck!" as you can tolerate. Here's a new one...you're welcome. You have been given a gift, a very expensive gift. That gift may have been funded by yourself, your parents, or the U.S. department of financial aid, but the memories you have are priceless, and they will last way past your last loan payment. (I suggest you think about that kick ass time you had your freshman year on Marathon Monday while you write the check, it makes it easier to bean)

You, the senior class, are a collection of individuals with amazing talent, creativity, intelligence and determination. You began college when the country was in the height of turmoil, yet you were able to focus and excel. You survived weird random roommates; sub-zero winters: the quarter system; riots; summer classes; five Halloweens, Super Bowl Sundays, St. Patrick's Days, Marathon Mondays, Cinco de Mayos (pretty much any "holiday' that involves drinking); World Series; parking in Boston; 21st birthdays; presidential elections; Uggs and popped-collars; natural disasters; the walk of shame; the loss of cell phones credit cards, keys, and money during a night out; study abroad; dining hall food; middler year writing; break-ups; co-ops; and by the time you read this...graduation. You now head for the next stop along your life line.

I am not a senior myself but for those of you whom I have had the privilege of meeting, I am inspired and motivated by your example and your energy. I can say without a doubt, you are the best class yet to graduate for Northeastern University, and leave very big shoes for the rest of us to fill.

There is no way to capture the past five years in 296 pages. It's not possible with 296,000 pages. My staff and I have done our best to represent Northeastern as it is today. I'm sure five, ten, twenty years from now NU will be very different, but it will where it is because of the influence of students like you. Reciprocally, you will be where you are in twenty years because of your time and experience here at Northeastern. I believe you all possess the skills and the desire to accomplish amazing things in the future, and with those accomplishments I hope you pull this book from your shelf, dust it off, and look back with a smile.

Now it's time for the real world. I hope you continue to be a shining example of character and perseverance. Since you won't need luck, from the bottom of my heart I wish you the success and happiness in the world.

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2006!

Warmest Wishes,

Jordan Berry

ank you more than words can express to:

ndra Miller, our advisor, for your continual enthusiasm and desire to improve this publication. Your ort is truly motivating: Caren Orlick Korin, for doing anything it takes to get the job done. Meet jon Sunday afternoons to pull labels is going above and beyond, and will not be forgotten: Tara derson, thanks for being my InDesign expert, spending your summer afternoons in the Cauldron fice, and putting up with my last minute page changes. Year after year, you are my saving grace; ean & Jeff in the business office for always answering questions and offering help-with a smile; hn, Dirk, Oliver, Laura, Bot, Gayle and everyone else in Student Activites for their support and sistance especially during the clean-up after the fire; Times New Roman, Northeastern News, RBB, NUTV, The Spectrum, The Onyx and all the other members of media board, after all we're all this together. The photographers at Mattthew's Arena without who there wouldn't be a sports ction. The Commencement Office, Office of the Registrar, Office of the President, and University ations. Without you the 2006 Cauldron would not be in existence.

Dear Son,

If we could have chosen any son in the world for our own, one with warmth and kindness, intelligence and wit, one we would have loved from the moment we saw him-we would have chosen you. We congratulate you and wish you a lot of success, health and luck in your life.

Your mom and dad

Erica,
For one moment the sky stood still, while a new star was born. You are that star! You shine in everything you are a part of. You have followed your dreams, working very hard to accomplish your goals. You have made us very proud of you. We wish you the very best in life.
With all our love,
Mom, Dad & Nicky

and enjoy your professional life.

Love Mom and Dad

Stephanie Gene...

You have worked so hard for this achievement and yet you still strive for even better. I have such admiration for the woman you are becoming and I wanted to let you know that I HVE ALWAYS BEEN and CONTINUE TO BE, so PROUD OF YOU...MY DAUGHTER...MY FRIEND. Congratulations~Love Mom

Kate Ashley O'Donnell

Congratulations to our beautiful Kate Ashley!
We blinked and the past five years have flown by.
You entered Northeastern as a teenager and are now emerging as confident, talented, young woman.

Your journey brought with it so many adventures and amusing "Kate Stories" Remember the "Fepto Incident"?
And how about those "Green Raviolis?"
These stories were made all the more hilarious by your telling of them.

Just look at all you're accomplished, Dear's List, Pep Band, Concert Band, and Rock Ensemble. Great achievements and we're going to miss them all.

Kate, you have a dream that we know youll work hard to reach and well be with you every step of the way.

We Love You and Were Very Proud of You.

As we said to you in '01, "V/e are, and always will be, your Perfect Fans."

God Watch over you! All Our Love Always,

Mom & Dad

Cynthia Burgos

It seems like only yesterday you were just taking your first steps. And now here you are a college graduate.

We are all so very proud of you!! We know you will succeed at whatever you choose to do.

Congratulations!

Love, Mom, Dad, Samantha, and Pappa

Jessica Cunha

Your achievements are not a surprise to us.
We always expected the most from you and you never disappointed us.
We are so proud of all you have achieved,
but most of all we are proud of the wonderful person you are.

Wishing you continued success in law school and happiness in life.

Congratulations,

Love you, Mom & Dad

Congratulations Sis!
It's finally over but you'll always be my hero
Love, Chris

Maria.

You paved the path to success and happiness through all your hard work and dedication to your goals. You thank us repeatedly for all we do for you, even though you deserve everything you have and much more. Congratulations on reaching this important milestone... you truly earned it!

We are beyond proud of your achievements, and look forward to being part of each new beginning in your life.

With love and support always,

Dad & Janice

Maria.

You continue to amaze us with your perseverence and talent. We are truly proud of your accomplishments and your commitment to helping others. We know we have been blessed with a wonderful daughter and granddaughter, and our love and support will be with you always.

We Love You Always, Mom and Grandma

CONGRATULATIONS, MICHAEL on all your accomplishments. We admire your hard work and perseverance. your charming personality will open many doors. Embrace the challenges and changes your future holds. Our prayer is that God will keep you safe on your journey through life. We are so blessed and proud to have you as our son. Remember, we are here for you always. Love. DAD & MOM

You did it, Brother! We are so proud of you. Love, Sally Jo, Ralph, Joe & Mari

Uncle Michael, you're the best! Love. Anastasia & Vincent

Rachel Lynn Ward

Ever since you were born you truly have been "the bundle of joy".

Rachel, you are one of the rare people whose dreams will become a reality. Always be strong, yet remain sensitive. It is the core of who you are. Find happiness in the path you select. Only you can choose the life you want to follow.

Remember we are with you on this path always.
There are no words to describe our height of pride in all your accomplishments.
You are our star — Congratulations!
With all our love.

Sabrina, we are extremely proud of you.

You have met every obstacle throughout your years at Northeastern University with style, grace, intellect, and perseverance.

As we watched you develop into an independent,
self-reliant young woman, we soared with admiration.

Always keep your beautiful smile and unique sense of humor.
These qualities will lighten the load of challenges that you will face in the future.

No dream is unattainable with your special qualities and desire to achieve.

We know, Sabrina, that you will be extremely successful in all of your endeavors. May the significant experiences you have encountered at NEU be the first of many triumphs in your life as you embark upon your career.

Our undying support, unconditional love and respect will always be there for you. Your special loving spirit, your strong determination, and your kind and giving heart will serve you well on your journey to the future.

With the motivation and incredibly good heart that you possess, life is an open door of possibilities.

We love you very much!

"... Your hearts know in silence the secrets of the days and the nights. But your ears thirst for the sound of your heart's knowledge. You would know in words that which you have always known in thought. You would touch with your fingers the naked body of your dreams.

And it is well you should. The hidden well-spring of your soul must needs rise and run murmuring to the sea; And the treasure of your infinite depths would be revealed to your eyes. but let there be noscales to weigh your unknown treasure; And seek not the depths of your knowledge with staff or sounding line. For self is a sea boundless and measureless.

Say not, "I have found the truth," but rather, "I have found a truth." Say not, "I have found the path of the soul." Say rather, "I have met the soul walking upon my path." For the soul walks upon all paths. The soul walks not upon a line, neither does it g row like a reed. The soul unfolds itself, like a lotus of countless petals."

- Khalil Gibran

As you seek your life's passion, may you find joy, enrichment, love, laugher . . . and the truth of your soul

I will always be there . . .

True Greatness is not talking about what you can and will do...true greatness is having the ability to recognize opportunity and to size it. As this chapter closes and you enter the world of endless possibilities, know this; we love; are extremely proud of you; and are in awe of all that you have accomplished-you truly exemplify greatness!

Congratulations! We love you! Mom, Dad, and Kimberly

When we first dropped you off at college you were just a boy out of high school, not knowing that the next five years would turn you into the man you have become. Now it is time for you to go out there and leave a new mark on the world. We could not be more proud of you!

Love, Dad & Mom

Jeff,
You've finally grown

I believe in you...
In your selfless goodness,
in the way you face each day with a commitment to your life and the things that really matter.
I believe in the decisions that you make,
in the careful consideration
you give each challenge, in the perseverance you have shown when I might give up.
I am so proud of you baby!
I love you, Nefney

I have always looked up to you ever since we were little and I hope that someday I will be as successful as you are today. I love you man!

Love lots, Jillie

Welcome to Husky Nation.

Get Involved and Give Back

Giving back is an important part of the Husky tradition. As Northeastern alumni, you are a critical part of the future. Volunteer for class and college programs, join a regional chapter, make an annual gift–get involved today!

Stay Informed

Read the Northeastern magazine, watch the Husky Nation alumni video, and check out the official Northeastern Alumni Web site at www.alumni.neu.edu.

Keep in Touch

Life moves on, especially for new alumni. If you move, change jobs, get a new e-mail address, or have news, let us know. Visit our update page on the Alumni Web site and tell us how to stay in touch.

Spread the Husky Spirit

Northeastern's regional chapter program allows you to stay connected and be an ambassador for the University across the country and around the world. Join our chapters in Massachusetts, New York, Washington D.C., California, and Florida, and spread the word. Become part of our growing chapter program and inquire about one in your area.
